DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

Applicant's election with traverse of Species I in the reply filed on 10/3/2007 is acknowledged. The traversal is on the ground(s) that the search and examination of the entire application could be made without serious burden. This is not found persuasive because, although there is no requirement to show separate classification in regards to an election of species, a burden does exist because a separate search would be required.

The requirement is still deemed proper and is therefore made FINAL.

Further, upon election of Species I, this application also contains claims directed to the following patentably distinct species:

Species IA: directed towards a carriage comprising at least one adjusting device, wherein the at least one adjusting device comprises a cam which is for adjusting the height position of the supporting point of the at least one supporting portion, where the at least one supporting portion engages and supports the recording head; and

Species IB: directed towards a carriage comprising at least one adjusting device, wherein the at least one adjusting device comprises a screw which is rotatable for adjusting the height position of the supporting point of the at least one supporting portion, where the at least one supporting portion engages and supports the recording head.

The species are independent or distinct because they are disclosed as mutually exclusive species.

Applicant is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 to elect a single disclosed species for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. Currently, claims 1, 10, 19, and 22 are generic.

Applicant is advised that a reply to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which depend from or otherwise require all the limitations of an allowable generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).
